NIE Graduate Student Conference 2022

Event Date: 5 November 2022

The NIE Graduate Student Conference 2022 (NIEGSC 2022) was organised on 5 November 2022 at the National Institute of Education (NIE), Nanyang Technological University (NTU), Singapore.

The theme of this year's conference was "Methodologies in Research: Innovations and Insights". This conference included 22 oral presentations, 4 poster presentations, and 6 3MT presentations. The conference offered an opportunity for NIE/NTU graduate students to share their research insights and innovations, (re)connect and discuss ways to advance methodologies in research and pedagogy.

Our keynote speaker, Dr. Ng Kian Bee (Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine), delivered a lecture at the conference.

Academic Series Talk (II) When Students Feel Confused: Emotional Experiences in E-learning Environments

Event Date: 19 August 2022

In this event, we invited Dr. Zhu Gaoxia, Assistant Professor from Learning Sciences and Assessment Academic Group at NIE, to share with NIE graduate students her research about students' socio-emotional learning experiences in digital learning environment.

Dr. Zhu Gaoxia discussed how emotions could affect learners' learning experience.

Academic Series Talk (III) NIE Library Resources & Services: What You Didn't Know

Event Date: 7 September 2022

NIEGSC organized this talk in collaboration with the NIE library on how to make the best use of the resources and services of NIE Library. We invited librarian Mr. Marcus Leong from the Learning Services department to share with our graduate students on the library services and facilities.

Mr. Marcus Leong introduced the NIE library facilities.

Wellness Talk (II) Academic Procrastination and Time Management

Event Date: 27 September 2022

In order to raise awareness among our graduate students of mental issues, NIEGSC collaborated with the NIE Wellness Centre (NWC) to organize this wellness talk. We invited Mr. Bernard Mackenzie, NIE Wellness Centre Manager, to discuss academic procrastination and how it contributes to issues such as depression, anxiety, and stress.

Mr. Bernard and Publicity Director Xiong Feng discussed methods to reduce anxiety.
